Asian Studies
Minor Worksheet

This worksheet is meant to help students plan and monitor progress toward completion of the minor in Asian Studies. Submission of this worksheet is not necessary in order to complete the degree.

Students who are contemplating graduate study in a particular area of the world or a career in international business or government—or those who are merely curious—are well served by the Minor in Asian Studies. It provides a well-rounded introduction to the world’s most populous continent. The Minor in Asian Studies is very appropriate accompaniment to majors in anthropology, East Asian languages and cultures, history, political science, economics, or other arts and letters departments. It is also suitable for students in the Mendoza College of Business.

Requirements: Asia-related courses fulfilling each of the following: (15 credit hours)

☐ Four courses from at least three different departments (language courses not accepted) (12 credit hours)

Course: (No.) (Title) ____________________________ Term: _________

Course: (No.) (Title) ____________________________ Term: _________

Course: (No.) (Title) ____________________________ Term: _________

Course: (No.) (Title) ____________________________ Term: _________

☐ One upper level course taken during the senior year that culminates in a capstone essay (3 credit hours)

Course: (No.) (Title) ____________________________ Term: _________